

The FCC should not intrude on the State of Indiana's No Call law. As an Indiana's citizen, I wholeheartedly support Indiana's no call law and any attempt by an association to have the FCC intercede is purely because that association would be embarrassed by the public outcry if they tried to have law changed.